Brief Biography of Jeanne Wakatsuki Houston. Jeanne Wakatsuki was born to Japanese-American parents in Inglewood, California, the youngest of ten children. As described in Farewell to Manzanar, she was interned with her family in the Manzanar camp from 1942-1945. After World War II ended and her family returned to California, Jeanne graduated from Long Beach Polytechnic High School and studied sociology and journalism at San Jose State College where she met her husband, James Houston.

one can ever hope to confront prejudice, he or she must come to terms with himself or herself.

Throughout much of the memoir, Jeanne has an uncertain, sometimes negative tone about being Japanese, and she is not able to feel whole as a person until the carnival queen ceremony, at which she finally begins to accept herself as neither essentially American ...
