As a closing thought, L3 is looking like a great module so far. We might easily play three or more additional game sessions in the delve before the adventure is finally completed, and if the characters currently in Hommler manage to finish up their dealings soon, maybe they'll arrive in Restenford and Lake Farmin in time to win their share of the spoils here as well.

Dungeon Masters Guild - L3 Deep Dwarven Delve (1e) Reviews

This adventure is continued in L2: The Assassin's Knot, and L3: Deep Dwarven Delve. The module was reviewed in issue 16 of Different Worlds magazine, which complained that TSR had abandoned its tradition of using maps as color art "in favor of pretty pictures irrelevant to the text." The reviewer, Anders Swenson, disliked the randomness of the ...
