Introduction in: Writing the war on terrorism
Jackson simply makes us aware of the science of critical discourse analysis and applies it to the most interesting contemporary issue, which is terrorism and the 'war on terror'. Jackson makes a point of writing 11th September 2001 as opposed to 9-11, as using the term 9-11 makes the events lose their specific history and context, what he argues is a deliberate ploy by the Bush administration and the media.
